High School

Even If

No matter what our feelings on change, to some extent, change is hard for everyone. Even good change disrupts our worlds. Which is why, in a world where it feels like everything changes, it's important to center ourselves around the One who never changes. In this series, we'll unpack how even if change is challenging, there is a way through it, counting on the One whose love and commitment to us never changes.

High School

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

As your high schooler starts their day, say “I noticed that you did [fill in the blank] the other day without being asked. Thank you. I really appreciate you taking care of that.”

Their Time

Strengthen your relationship by adjusting your plans to show up whenever they need you.

Meal Time

At a meal this week, ask your teen, “What is something that has changed in your life from this time last year?”

Bed Time

Pray for your teen as they navigate the new school year (whether it’s started or upcoming). Ask God to help them adjust to changes in relationships, opportunities, academics, and whatever else the year brings.
